

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

ERIC SCHMIDT JARED COHEN

Google Chair Eric Schmidt and Google Ideas founder Jared Cohen will address the ways in which technology is reshaping society and international relations.

THE NEW DIGITAL AGE TRANSFORMING NATIONS, BUSINESSES, AND OUR LIVES

"Prescient and provocative."
—The New York Times

with a new afterword

THE NEW DIGITAL AGE addresses some provocation questions about the future. How will technology reshape privacy and security, diplomacy and war, revolution and terrorism? How will technology improve our lives and what changes are in store for the billions of people who will be coming online in the next decade?

February 26, 2014

10:30 a.m., Frist Campus Center MPR

Princeton Public Lectures' Vanuxem Fund will support this event, which is free and open to the public. Admission will be on a first come, first served basis.

Cover art by JEFF KOONS